SACRED HEART COLLEGE 1975

*This book is dedicated to
DR. ALLAN AXELRAD
who through his own fine arts
has brought so many
to realize those arts
within ourselves which compose us
as individuals*

ARCHIVES
SISTERS OF MERCY
BELMONT, NORTH CAROLINA

WE ARE ALL
OF FINE ART

EXPRESSING OURSELVES THE WAY WE KNOW BEST

IF I TOLD YOU I WAS A PIECE OF FINE ART . . .

WOULD YOU LAUGH?

WHAT WOULD YOU SAY IF I TOLD YOU
I WAS A TREE GROWING FROM WITHIN ...

WOULD YOU LAUGH?

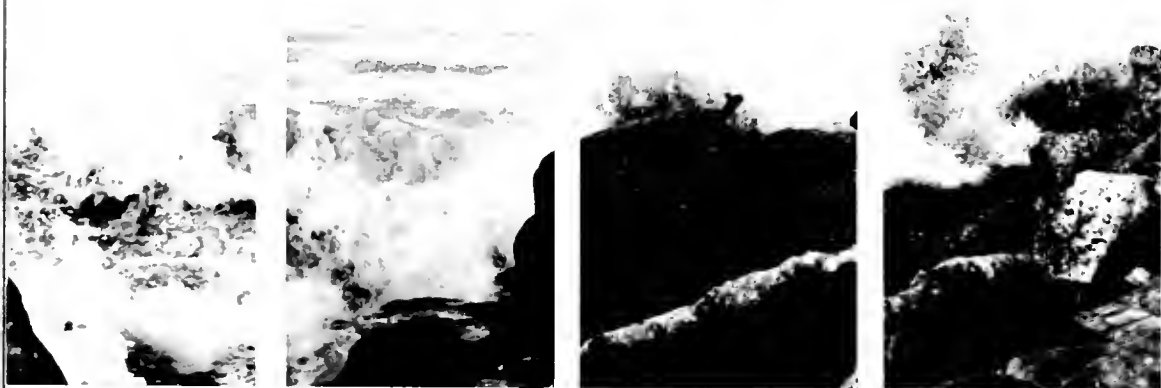

I TELL YOU, "I AM A ROCK
ABLE TO STAND ON MY OWN TWO FEET."

WOULD YOU LAUGH?

IF IT TOLD YOU I WAS THE SEA CHANGING LIKE THE TIDES . . .

WOULD YOU LAUGH?

AND WHAT IF I TOLD YOU, "I AM ME?"

I AM ME!

A PIECE OF FINE ART!

AS AN INDIVIDUAL,
I CONTRIBUTE TO THE UNIQUENESS
OF THIS COLLEGE OF PEOPLE.

ALL OF US ARE IMPORTANT

One needs to realize in the other
her own dignity,
a reflection of her spirit . . .

and even her mannerisms.

This learning center
has brought together
many individuals
with varied purposes.
The personal development
of all individuals
is somehow the ultimate expression
of such union.

Because we have met,
shared,
and loved . . .

May we come to realize that
WE ARE ALL TRULY A FINE ART.

ADMINISTRATION

Dear Members of the College Community:

Probably one of the most difficult decisions made by our Board of Trustees was made January 23, 1975--Sacred Heart College would continue and, please God, would grow. A new cloak would cover it and a new dimension would be added.

What causes colleges to fail is too often blamed on a decrease in enrollment and financial distress. This seems to be a "tail wag dog" approach. What more clearly determines success or failure is "shared vision."

What is this vision of which we speak? The vision is that which includes purpose and is completed by love. It provides people with a forward thrust to be and to act as a team. People who participate in this vision are willing to make the many sacrifices entailed in pursuing the goals and objectives of our College Community. Shared vision has closely knit our College Community. It has given sharp pronunciation to our new direction and a sharp focus on our new image. Having determined that "service is our hallmark" we have "put our hands to the plow" and there is no turning back.

It behooves us now to put our best foot forward, and though each of us is a piece of fine art -- a pearl purchased at a great price -- each of us is not a gem to behold, but a jewel to enhance, to radiate a spark of light, to be a center of love, a vivifying leaven amidst our fellowmen.

God love you,

Sister Mary Michel Boulus, RSM

FACULTY

To inspire, to share thoughts and knowledge is indeed a wonderful experience. To share and give of ourselves is unique and fulfilling. This past year, new doors have opened and we, the Faculty, hope to continue to grow with our students.

FRESHMEN

It has been a year of new experiences and adjustments. We strived to belong and have succeeded. We may have no money and we'll probably graduate wearing blue jeans and T-shirts on the softball field . . . but we have made friends and memories to keep forever.

We were the beginnings, the unmolded clay. We were the materials out of which we were to take shape into that "piece of fine art."

Each new day helped us to grow in form, and each new experience helped give us shape, the shape that so uniquely distinguishes us as loving persons.

We have continued to grow in form, realizing our imperfections but working to integrate our uniqueness with all those around us.

The past year has brought new rhymes and reasons in life. It is left to us now to help others realize the true beauty in themselves - to help them form and shape themselves into being the persons they are really meant to be. In our growth and development, we have learned what it means to be together, what it means to be alone. We have been molded into a world of beauty - together or individually, we stand as a piece of fine art.

SENIORS

We, the Senior Class, left not a pitcher full,
not a statue untouched, not a window unclimbed,
and last but not least, not a friendship unshared
. . . and what more could one ask for?
